all around COFFEE COUNTY

TOO LOW I saw a copy of a report this week giving the yields of corn of the various counties for 1967. Yields are as follows: Barbour-34, Coffee-39, Bullock-37, Dale-42, Geneva-44, Henry-43, Pike-42, Covington-40, and Crenshaw-41.

PEANUT YIELDS Speaking of yields, here are some facts just released on peanut yields in the Wiregrass for 1967: Barbour-1298 pounds per acre, Coffee-1350, Covington-1365, Crenshaw-993, Dale-1364 and Henry-1363. Geneva had an average of 1562 pounds and Houston had an average yield of 1696.

From these figures it is obvious that Geneva County is beating us by about 200 pounds per acre and Houston by 300 pounds per acre. Coffee County farmers, I believe can close this gap. Incidentally, Coffee County has the third largest increase in the state. Averages are as follows: Houston - 30,000; Henry-28,000; Geneva-16,000; Dale-15,000; Covington-9,000; and Coffee-22,000.

4-H RECORDS Dan Presley told me that he has had a 100 per cent increase in 4-H Club record books being turned in by members. One reason for this is the fact that Presley got an awards program underway two years ago for 4-H Club members who excel in project work. He is awarding trophies, ribbons, savings bonds, wrist watches, and other awards made possible by the 4-H Club Foundation and interested businessmen.

COMMUNITY CALF SHOWS Mrs. Vincent Rogers of Route One, New Brockton, mentioned to me the other day that we had a community calf show in Kinship with 8 boys and girls and didn't have one for the Goodman boys and girls even though they had more than Kinship. I was glad to hear about this additional interest in the community shows.

The folks over at Kinship really had a fine show a few nights ago and plans have already been made to continue this next year as well as at Goodman, New Hope, Mt. Pleasant, New Brockton and other areas where interest develops. Rex Wyrosick, who showed in the Junior Cattleman's show Wednesday in Elba, told me that his calf handled so much better in the Junior Cattleman's show as a result of having shown in the Kinship Community Show. Of course, the main value is that the young people develop their skills and interest in good cattle by increased participation.

RECREATION Robert Clark, our recreation specialist, spent Friday working with individuals in the county who are interested in developing recreational sites for people who live in the county and also for tourists. Clark works full time with the Auburn University Extension Service helping to decide on activities that will be most profitable.

Clark and Extension Farm Agent Dan Presley visited Rex Lowery of the Jack Community to plan additional facilities in and around his commercial fish ponds. I am sure that other folks are interested in this type thing. If you are interested, get in touch with me.

JUNIOR CATTLEMAN'S SHOW It was a pleasure for Mr. Speed and Mr. Presley and me to attend the annual Cattleman's Association Show and Sale which was held in Elba. The Cattleman's show, we enjoyed seeing boys like Lee Boyd of Elba and the former Wyrosick of Kinship show their calves. In fact, Boyd won the top showmanship award. However, younger children also did an excellent job. I am thinking of Anita Sessions, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bowden Sessions, who stayed right in there with the boys showing her calves. Of course, the bigger awards went to Davey and Freddy Sessions. They showed both the Grand and Reserved Champions. Little Chris Sessions, the 7 year old baby in the family, put on a real show showing his calf. The Sessions boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Sessions of Route 3, Elba. Incidentally, the county-wide 4-H Club Calf Show will be held Friday night, April 26, at the Little League Field in Enterprise.

FISH FRY. The Methodist Men's Club entertained the Brotherhoods from the First Baptist and Westside Baptist at their monthly meeting April 8th. The group had plenty of good fish and it was cooked by the experts, (top photo).

Guest speaker for the evening was Mack King, history teacher at Elba High School.

Hearing Reset By Commission

By C. C. (Jack) Owens
There was a public hearing at Dothan, April 8 and 9, on General Telephone Company's request for rate increases. Mr. Bull Connor moved to deny the company's petition without giving those representing the protestants and the staff of the Public Service Commission an opportunity to cross-examine the witnesses offered by General Telephone Company or to analyze and refute the figures on which they based under bond. I recall all too well the nine years it took to resolve the Southern Bell case and get refunds for rates that had been put into effect under bond.

The attorneys representing the following municipalities requested time to analyze the evidence and cross-examine the witnesses: Abbeville, Andalusia, Brundidge, Dothan, Elba, Geneva, Hartford, Headland, Lufkin, New Brockton, Opp, Samson, Scottsboro, Section, Slocomb, Greenville, Red Level, Columbia, Midland City, Newton, McKenzie, Banks, Georgiana, Brantley, Daleville, Glenwood, Coffee Springs, Pinckard and Enterprise. They are entitled to this consideration, and the people they represent should not have to pay the highest phone rates in America under a court order.

I have always tried to protect the public from exorbitant utility rates, and the position I take now is an effort to do just that. If the protestants do not have a chance to analyze evidence and cross-examine witnesses, the court can assume that the Commission accepts the company's figures as correct.

PRINCIPAL LAMAR FOLEY is presented his personal copy of the new Elba, the high school annual, which was dedicated to him this year. The new books were distributed to the students on Friday morning. Hayes To Build New Funeral Home

A modern funeral home will cost more than one hundred thousand dollars and will be one of the most beautiful and most modern buildings in the Southeast. The buildings will have approximately 6,000 square feet floor space and will be equipped with an impressive chapel, two bedroom for attendant who will be on duty at nights. No expense is being spared for the new home and chapel to be as peaceful and pretty as possible. The building is to be completed in approximately six months after construction begins May 1st.

Headstart Funds Awarded For Coffee County

The Office of Economic Opportunity has approved a grant of $185,337.00, for Summer Headstart Programs in Pike, Bullock and Coffee counties, according to Gene Schroeder, Director of the Organized Community Action Program, Troy, Alabama.

The funds will be used to run 75 classes in these three counties. The Headstart summer classes will be held in 6 centers and will include 1,005 enrollees. Schroeder said, bus transportation will be provided.

$106,680.00 will be allocated to the Pike County Board of Education, $22,241.00, Coffee County Board of Education and the Organized Community Action program will administer $75,965.00, in Bullock County.

A total of 167 persons will be employed during the summer program. The local share of the summer projects will be $19,558.00, and the total program cost is $204,895.00.

The Lions made the money by sponsoring the Little Miss and the Miss Elba contest and with a special sale of the Birmingham News. Other projects they participate in are regular contributions to the sight conservation program, collected glasses for India and furnished funds for local cases needing glasses.

This money is only a start on the required funds for air conditioning the auditorium and Taylor states that the money must come from contributions of civic groups and because it is impossible for the school board to finance any additional projects with their limited funds.

Co-op Wins Court Suit

Alabama Electric Co. decision upholding an earlier decision in the U.S. District Court. The court ruled in favor of the generating plant on the Tombligh River and to make 35-year power supply contracts with the rural distribution cooperatives it serves.

The U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals at New Orleans has handed down a decision upholding an earlier decision in the U.S. District Court. The court ruled in favor of the generating plant on the Tombligh River and to make 35-year power supply contracts with the rural distribution cooperatives it serves.

The legal battle has been underway since 1962. The generating plant which is the subject of the court battle is nearly completed along with high capacity substations and other related facilities.

One of the most significant aspects of the ruling was the appellate court's finding that Alabama Power Company had no standing on which to base its claim that Alabama Electric was violating anti-trust regulations by making long-term contracts and constructing the new plant.

The 35-year contracts were required by the Rural Electrification Administration as security to the 35-year loan to Alabama Electric for construction of the plant designed to supply its own members with bulk electrical power.

The REA Administrator had approved the loan to Alabama Electric giving his reasons as "significant savings in the cost of power to AEC and its members" and stating "the loan was necessary to protect the effectiveness and security of AEC" since Alabama Power has "demonstrated its intent to deprive AEC and the members of existing and potential consumers in their service areas."

Alabama Power Company had sought to block the construction of the new plant, to void the 35-year contracts between Alabama Electric and its long time members and had asked for treble damages, costs and attorneys' fees.

The majority decision was handed down by Circuit Judges Richard T. Rives of Montgomery and Walter P. Gwin of Tuscaloosa. Judge John Godbold of Montgomery dissented.

Alabamians Are Urged To Support Cancer Society

Alabama Gov. Lurleen B. Wallace has called upon "all Alabamians to support educational and fundraising efforts of the American Cancer Society" during the April crusade.

Governor Wallace proclaimed April "Cancer Control Month" in Alabama in keeping with the President's proclamation for the entire nation.

She said "knowledge of the signs of cancer popularized by the American Cancer Society can help save thousands of lives from cancer," adding that "it is appropriate that all Alabamians learn and recognize the warning signals."

The signals are: (1) Unusual bleeding or discharge (2) A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere (3) A sore that does not heal (4) Change in bowel or bladder habits (5) Hoarseness or cough (6) Indigestion or difficulty in swallowing (7) Change in wart or mole.

Candidates To Talk May 2

The American Legion Auxiliary will select a girl to attend the annual Girl's State, which is held the week of June 9, on Thursday night, May 2.

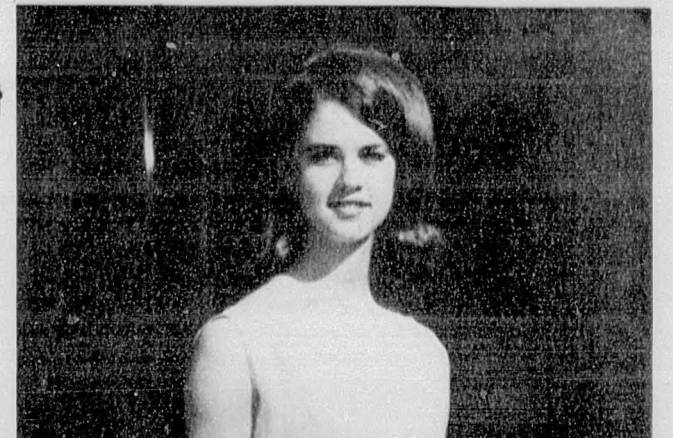

The girl's participation must be in their junior year of high school and must make a short talk at the next meeting of the American Legion.

Anyone needing more information is asked to contact Mrs. Conway Lowery, Mrs. Jimmie Davis, Miss Sylvia Jones, or Mrs. Bobby King.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK is being celebrated this week in the United States and librarians everywhere are stressing "Use Your Library" and these young ladies are doing just that at Elba Elementary school.

The girls, Kayla Hudson, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hudson, and Donna McCollough, daughter of Mrs. Grady Thomas and the late Donna McCollough, are studying a film strip on fish aquarium to complete a project in their school work.

BEVERLY RAINER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Rainer Jr., is featured as "The Favorite" in the new Elba High School annual, which was released last Friday morning. She is featured in a double page spread of pictures. Beverly was selected by popular vote of the student body. (See page for our lovely favorites that are featured in the Elba).

WHY WOULD THE Chicago mayor draw fire for his orders to "shoot to kill"? When individuals or groups of hoodlums decide to burn, destroy, bomb and whatever, it is time to shoot to kill.

What is this country coming to when we allow these hoodlums to destroy property and to maintain the stealing or looting of stores are we suppose to honor them and beg them to be good boys while they continue to destroy even the lives of people. No, it is now time to "shoot to kill."

After the destruction of millions of dollars worth of property and the stealing or looting of stores are we suppose to make the excuse that these boys are hungry and do not have the pleasures of life. Have you ever seen these boys steal bread and meat. No, it is televisions, radios, knives, guns and all that type stuff. And I bet that not one of them work for a living and wouldn't take a job under any circumstance. Anyone today can get a job if he wants it and if he does a reasonably good job when he gets it, he will continue to have a job.

There is no excuse for such actions of any individual or any group of persons, which are actually mobs at work. What is the difference in these mobs and the mobs of years ago recently reported made by a small daily newspaper in the south, which started with the following classified ad on Monday:

"FOR SALE: John Doe (name not being used since a person in Elba has the same name) has one sewing machine for sale. Phone 958 after 7 p.m. and ask for Mrs. Kelly who lives with him cheap."

NOTICE: We regret having erred in John Doe's ad yesterday. It should have read: one sewing machine for sale. Cheap. Phone 958 and ask for Mrs. Kelly who lives with him after 7 p.m.

"On Wednesday - John Doe has informed us that he has received several annoying telephone calls because of the error we made in his classified ad yesterday. His ad stands corrected as follows:

"FOR SALE: John Doe has one sewing machine for sale. Cheap. Phone 958 after 7 p.m. and ask for Mrs. Kelly who lives with him."

Rejoinder to an atheist: Give him a good dinner and ask him if he believes there is a cook.

"FOR SALE: John Doe (name not being used since a person in Elba has the same name) has one sewing machine for sale. Phone 958 after 7 p.m. and ask for Mrs. Kelly who lives with him cheap."

NOTICE: We regret having erred in John Doe's ad yesterday. It should have read: one sewing machine for sale. Cheap. Phone 958 and ask for Mrs. Kelly who lives with him after 7 p.m.

"On Wednesday - John Doe has informed us that he has received several annoying telephone calls because of the error we made in his classified ad yesterday. His ad stands corrected as follows:

"FOR SALE: John Doe has one sewing machine for sale. Cheap. Phone 958 after 7 p.m. and ask for Mrs. Kelly who lives with him."

Rejoinder to an atheist: Give him a good dinner and ask him if he believes there is a cook.

NEW SOCIAL SECURITY PROVISIONS BENEFIT THE YOUNG WORKER

New protection for the young worker and his family stands out among the new provisions in the social security law for the disabled, Harry N. Scott, District Manager for social security in Dothan, explained.

Young workers who become disabled before they had a chance to work under the new provisions, now have a chance to work under the new provisions.

For benefits to be paid to a disabled worker and his dependents under the old law he needed social security credits for at least 5 out of the 10 years before becoming disabled. Now, if you become disabled between 24 and 31, you need credits for only half the time between age 21 and the time you became unable to work.

If you are disabled before you reach age 24, you need only 1 1/2 years of work under social security out of a 3-year period ending when your disability began.

Scott said that benefits under this new provision are first payable for the month of February 1968. About 100,000 people - disabled workers and their dependents - are eligible. An estimated 700,000 in additional benefits will be paid out in the first 12 months.

Torque-Drive does away with the clutch the most economy, it's available exclu-

Look how simple it is. You accelerate in 1st, then shift to 2nd for cruising. That's all.
If you like, you can even start in 2nd.
And accelerate from standstill to cruising speed. It's just a little slower that way.

The shift lever is conveniently located on the steering column, and there's a

HOG NUMBERS

Coffee County's hog production rose 8% in 1967 and has risen 20% since 1965. Estimated numbers of hogs and pigs in Coffee County as of January 1, 1968, is 41,000. This is up from 37,900 in January, 1967, and the 1965 production was 32,900. In the nine wiregrass counties, Coffee County is in fourth place following Houston, Geneva and Covington.

Big changes are taking place in hog production.
Many Coffee County growers are getting big enough to make hog income a major source of farm profits.
R. Speed told me a few days ago that Eugene Farris of Route 3, Elba, is building new and improved facilities to take care of his sows and pigs. He already has an efficient feeding arrangement.

SPRAYING PECANS

Several folks in the county are interested in spraying pecans for scab, for the nut casebarrer and for other insects. The scab fungus lives on old shucks and leaves and as spores are releasing they affect the young trees. So early spraying is desirable. If the nut casebarrer has been a problem, an insecticide should also be included in the first spraying.

If you would like to have a copy of the pecan spray schedule, call us or write us and we will be happy to mail a copy of this schedule to you. A lot of folks don't spray because they don't have equipment to spray large trees. I know one or two people who do commercial spraying. If you need someone, call me and I will be glad to help you.

SAFETY
I had the pleasure of attending a pre-school check up at the County Health Office a few days ago with my youngest son.
Each prospective grade student had his hearing checked, physical examination, talks on eating habits and other important things to young people. All of the instructions were impressive, but I was most impressed by the safety talk. Mrs. Jack Smith gave. She emphasized safety in walking, riding bicycles and entering and leaving cars. Then she gave each student a small booklet on safety around lawnmowers. Two of my close friends got their toes cut off in 1967 as they were mowing the lawn.

I am sure that all parents in Coffee County recognize the importance of picking up all of the trash and rocks and sticks before mowing. The first time. It is best not to let children play around lawn mowers. Letting a child play close to a lawn mower while it is in operation is a whole lot like playing Russian roulette. You are taking a chance.

WORKING CATTLE
Dr. Worth Lanier, our Extension veterinarian, and also our local veterinarians in the county remind me of the damage that stomach worms do to the cattle industry in Coffee County. They point out that it is fine to treat animals which have become infested with worms and good results can be obtained. However, according to these folks, it is even more important to prevent build-up of worms by not confining young calves in small areas in the early spring where they are more likely to pick up the worm eggs from the blades of grass.
It is good to use a chain drag of some implement to drag certain areas of the pasture where manure piles have built up. Using a bush hog in tall grass where there is a lot of manure is also helpful.

DIRECTORS MEETING
Coffee County's officers and directors of the Coffee County Hog Producers Association will meet Thursday night in Elba to discuss ways to lower the costs of producing hogs.
Mr. Allen Brown of our Auburn University staff will meet with the group to outline certain ways that production costs can be lowered. Officers and directors planning to attend

How To Buy Fresh Fruit

Almost nobody likes a wormy apple, except the worm; and there's not much drooling over rotten grapefruits, except perhaps by the citrus fly.

If you're not a worm or a citrus fly, however, chances are you favor the more tantalizing quality of fresh fruit. If so, you might appreciate a little help from the U. S. Department of Agriculture when you shop.
Their Consumer and Marketing Service offers these buying tips:

1. Don't buy just because of low price. Unless the lower price is a result of overabundance, the so-called bargain may be undesirable.

2. Buy only what you need. You can usually buy

3. Shop for plentiful.

4. Buy in season. Quality is usually higher and prices lower.

5. Shop for plentiful.

Someone once said that the problems was not the high cost of living—but rather the cost of high living.

According to a recent survey, uninformed consumers are paying an average of 37 per cent interest for credit, compared to an average of 12.1 per cent being paid by borrowers who know their true rates, reports Fred Woods, extension specialist in public affairs.

Woods says credit is a lubricant to our economic machinery. It is necessary to assure continued economic growth. Why then is credit such a strain on the consumer?

Credit users have not followed the growth of credit agencies, Woods says. Credit illiteracy offers a considerable area for adult education programs. Three and one-half million Alabama citizens need help understanding what credit is, what it really costs and how to use it wisely.

Caldwell Defines

'Sole Surviving Son'

Alabama Director Hugh J. Caldwell Jr. said recently that there seems to be some misunderstanding of the term "sole surviving son," as used by the Selective Service System.

The term "sole surviving son," as used by Selective Service, means, "a registrant who is the sole surviving son of a family of which the father or one or more sons or daughters were killed in action or died in line of duty while serving in the Armed Forces of the United States, or subsequently died as a result of injuries received or disease incurred during such service . . . , Caldwell said.

Such registrants are entitled to Class IV-A deferment from active duty. However, many parents seem to think that the fact that there was only one son in a family automatically classified him as a sole surviving son, he added. Unfortunately, this is not true. To be a sole surviving son, the father or other brothers or daughters must have died as a result of military service, he said.

Another registrant recently wrote, "At the present time I am in my third year of graduate work for a doctoral degree. It will be necessary for me to transfer to another university for the last two years because of the curriculum offered. If I do transfer, may I retain my II-S student deferment?"

The answer is, "Yes, providing there is no interruption in your study program and your new school certifies that you are satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction leading to the degree. The II-S deferment may be granted, in your case, for only two more years as there is a four-year limitation for graduate school inclusive of the years already used in such

Naval Institute
Donates To
U.S.S. Alabama

The United States Naval Institute of Annapolis, Md., recently donated $1,000.00 for the U.S.S. Alabama. This contribution was entirely unsolicited and was a most welcome surprise.

The U.S.S. Alabama is a historic naval ship permanently enshrined in Mobile Bay, Alabama as a War Memorial. The U.S. Naval Institute is a non-profit, private, professional society for all persons interested in naval and wartime affairs.

Henri M. Aldridge, chairman of the U.S.S. Alabama Battleship Commission states, "It is a distinct pleasure to have our efforts recognized by this distinguished professional society. We consider it appropriate to use these funds to restore an area of the ship to its original wartime appearance. A plaque will be erected to permanently express our gratitude to the donor."

Social Security Benefits

Available For Disabled Widows

There are hundreds of disabled widows in this area who could receive social security benefits by filing an application, stated Harry N. Scott, district manager of the Dothan Social Security Office.

Scott states that in March, because of a change in the law, social security checks were mailed to many disabled widows for the first time, and that there are many others who could qualify by applying. Under this new provision of the law, certain totally disabled widows may now receive benefits on their deceased husbands' records if they are at least age 50. This new provision also applies to certain disabled widows and certain divorced wives who meet specific support requirements. To receive these new disability benefits, the disability must have occurred no later than seven years after the spouse's death or within seven years after previous entitlement to social security benefits has ended.

Anyone who believes he is eligible for these benefits should contact the nearest social security office. The social security office for this area is located in the Federal Building, 100 West Troy Street, Dothan, Alabama 36301.
